

Misses Couch Entertain.

Misses Lulu and Agnes Couch entertained the Friday evening card club at the residence of Dr. Barr, on Leighton avenue last evening. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. The score cards were pen and ink sketches of "Gaston and Alphonse." The ladies' prize, a fern dish, and fern, was won by Miss Lea, and the gentlemen's prize, a pen and ink sketch of "Gaston and Alphonse," fell to Mr. Griff Sproull. An elaborate luncheon was served at the conclusion of the game.—Anniston, (Ala.) cor. to Atlanta Journal.

Why Not Make Him Comptroller.

State Auditor Knott is favorably mentioned by a number of the state papers for treasurer in 1904. Mr. Knott is a very efficient man for the office, but we have yet to hear of any objections to the present obliging and competent state treasurer, J. B. Whitfield.—Gainesville Sun.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

Mr. Andrew Johnson, a merchant of Dunnellon, and formerly mayor of that city, is dead and his remains were taken to Clearwater where they were laid to rest Tuesday.

The deceased was about forty years of age, came to Florida from Alabama, and was a man of fine business qualities.

He leaves a wife, two children and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Col. Bob McNamee and the Labor Journal.

Today's issue of the Labor Journal goes for Col. Robert McNamee "with the gloves off" as a result of the recent injunction unpleasantness between the colonel and Editor Jodon. Among other affectionate appellations it refers to him as a "political charlatan," a "political grafter," "a no mad, a Gipsy, a floater," and asserts that he is just as reliable in politics as a fox is in a hen roost, and he will bear watching as long as there is chickens in sight.—Tampa Times.

Throwing Mud Bouquets at Each Other.

Editor Baker, of the Sanford Chronicle, is engaged in a controversy with Editor Tomlinson, of the Lakeland News. It has reached the bitter personal stage, as witness the following paragraph from the last issue of the Chronicle: "The Lakeland News editor still harps on the mule being without pride of ancestry or hope of progeny, which is altogether applicable to himself. For we have two of the finest boys that ever gladdened a father's heart, while he has not so much as a rag baby; and as for ancestry, ours started with Adam—where his left off."

A Neat Compliment For Miami.

The idea of having churches at Miami is something we can't understand. Where Heaven begins churches should end.—White Springs Herald.

A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlaine's Stomach & Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled by constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford.—For sale by Anti-Monopol Drug Store.

Christmas Aftermath.

Having had chocolate creams and diamond sunbursts in its midst, no doubt it will cost the stocking many a pang to go back to corns and bunions.—Brenham (Texas) Banner.

It is said that J. Pierpont Morgan's daughter is to marry a French nobleman and that the couple will be given thirty-six million dollars to start housekeeping on.

BREAKFAST

MADE EASY

PAN CAKES or Griddle Cakes are as old as the English language and are likely to endure as long.

Wheat flour makes a good griddle cake in skillful hands, but to some persons it lacks character and taste.

Rice by itself is open to the same objection, while corn meal goes to the other extreme, and to some palates is of too coarse or pronounced a flavor.

A mixture of all three of these grades blends their varied flavors into one taste, to which no exception can be taken by any one.

We sell Hecker's Old Homestead Pancake, the best to be had. The proper quantity of raising powder is already added and nothing is left for the cook to do but to moisten with water or milk and bake—a hungry family will do the rest.

We also have Hecker's Self Raising Buckwheat, Yellow Corn Flour, and Griddle Cake Flour, all self raising and equally as good as the Homestead Flour.

Purina Pan Kake Flour, Purina Health Flour, Ralston's Breakfast Food and Barley Food, Cream of Wheat. Force, a breakfast food fast coming to the front. Oat Meal and Pettijohns Breakfast Food and in fact everything that goes to make a breakfast easy.

Include some of these breakfast foods in your next order. If you don't trade with us, we want you to. We have the goods and our prices are right. We run an exclusive grocery and know your wants.

Yours for more business.
